

- (5) On state funded projects, it may be required to consult the Environmental Division to determine if an air and noise study will be required
- (6) Project Schedule
- (7) Any other related information

A breakdown of project cost responsibility is to be included on all projects. Each project must be considered on an individual basis and the amount of detail and documentation will depend on whether the project has been classified as a major or minor action regarding Federal requirements.

Deleted Information*